

HIDDEN GEMS AND FORGOTTEN PEOPLE

TIPPERARY TOWN CLANS HERITAGE SOCIETY

CHURCHWELL

Long before Tipperary Town had access to a piped water supply, the ornamental Churchwell provided a constant source of supply to local people. An absentee landlord named Stafford O'Brien had the well constructed in 1833.